STATUTE ACCEPTION.

Today, the seventh day of February nineteen hundred and eighty-three, JOHANNES GERHARDUS WORTELBOER, notary at Veldhoven, appeared before me:

I. Mr. JACOBUS HENRICUS MARIA ZEGVELD, born in Tilburg on March 4, 1914, building official, residing in Rusthoven 7, 5655 CL EINDHOVEN;
II. Mr. ANTONIUS GERARDUS THEODORUS VAN SWAAIJ, born in Duiven on July 7, 1944, administrator, residing at Ulenpas 47, 5655 JB EINDHOVEN, according to their declaration in this matter acting in their capacity as chairman and secretary, respectively, of the association established in EINDHOVEN named BADMINTONCLUB HANEVOET, hereinafter also referred to as "THE ASSOCIATION," and as such representing the association for the implementation of the decision of the general meeting of members mentioned below.

FOREGOING.

The declarants, further acting as stated, declared:
The association was founded in Eindhoven on March 1, 1974. The association has not received royal approval and its articles of association have not yet been notarized, so it therefore has limited legal capacity. The association is, however, registered in the association register of the Chamber of Commerce and Industry for Eastern North Brabant under number V 235271. In order to grant the association full legal capacity, the articles of association were adopted at the general meeting held in Eindhoven on October 20, 1982. It was also decided to have these articles of association recorded in a notarial deed and subsequently registered in the aforementioned association register. Considering the foregoing, the declarants declared that the articles of association adopted at the aforementioned general meeting read as follows:

ARTICLES OF ASSOCIATION.
NAME AND SEAT.

ARTICLE 1.
1.The association bears the name BADMINTONCLUB HANEVOET.
2.It has its seat in the municipality of EINDHOVEN.

FURNISHINGS.

ARTICLE 2.
1. The association's bodies are the board and the general meeting, as well as all other persons and committees charged by the general meeting with a more specifically defined task under the articles of association and to whom the general meeting has granted decision-making authority.

2. The bodies of the association referred to in paragraph 1 do not have legal personality.

DURATION AND FINANCIAL YEAR.

ARTICLE 3.
1. The association was founded on March 1, 1974, in Eindhoven. It has been entered into for an indefinite period.

2. The association's financial year runs from January 1st to December 31st.

3. The association year runs from August 1st to July 31st.

ARTICLE 4.
The association aims to promote amateur badminton. It will strive to achieve this goal, if possible and in the interest of the association, by:
a. providing the opportunity to practice the game of badminton;
b. forming a bond between its members;
c. promoting the game of badminton;
d. taking measures that can lead to an increase in the level of play of the members;
e. joining organizations whose purpose is similar to that of the association, hereinafter referred to as "THE ORGANIZATIONS";
f. organizing and participating in competitions, whether or not in competition mortgage;
g. all legally permissible means at its disposal.

MEMBERS.

ARTICLE 5.
1. Members are natural persons who have been admitted as members by the board at their request.

2. In the event of non-admission by the board, admission may still be decided upon at the next general meeting at the request of the person concerned.

3. At the proposal of the board, the general meeting may appoint a member as an honorary member in recognition of his or her special services to the association.

4. Members who, for medical or social reasons, will not participate in the association's activities for more than two months may be suspended. The board will assess the reason and will not implement the suspension status until the first day of the month following notification of the reason.

OBLIGATIONS.

ARTICLE 6.
1. The members are obliged:
a. to comply with the statutes and regulations of the association as well as the decisions of the bodies referred to in Article 2;
b. to comply with the statutes and regulations of the organisations, the decisions of their bodies, as well as the competition rules declared applicable by these organisations;
c. not to harm the interests of the association and those of the organisations;
d. to accept and fulfill all other obligations arising from membership or concerning the association, insofar as the latter obligations relate to the members of the association.

2. In addition to the obligations stated in these Articles of Association, the association may only impose obligations on members with the prior consent of the General Meeting.

3. A member may exclude the applicability of a decision that increases obligations other than those of a financial nature, by terminating its membership, taking into account the provisions of Article 9, paragraph 4.

DISCIPLINARY LAW.

ARTICLE 7.
1. a. In general, any act or omission that is contrary to the articles of association, regulations and/or decisions of the association's bodies, or that harms the association's interests, will be punishable;
b. Any act or omission that violates the competition regulations, the statutes, regulations, and/or decisions of the organizations' bodies, or that harms the interests of the organizations, will also be punishable.

2. To the extent that this authority has not been assigned to its own committee charged with disciplinary jurisdiction, the board is authorized to impose the following penalties in the event of violations as referred to in paragraph 1(a), as well as in the event of violation of the competition regulations:
a. reprimand;
b. disciplinary fines;
c. suspension;
d. dismissal (expulsion).

3. Suspensions may be imposed for a maximum of one association year. During the suspension period, a member is prohibited from attending a general meeting and may not vote at such meetings. In addition, other membership rights may be denied during this period.

4.a. Dismissal (expulsion) may only be pronounced if a member seriously violates the statutes, regulations and/or decisions of the association's bodies, or unreasonably harms the association;
b. expulsion can only be pronounced by the board;
c. after the board has decided on expulsion, the member concerned will be notified of the decision, stating the reasons, as soon as possible by registered letter;
d. The person concerned is entitled to appeal to the general meeting within one month of receipt of this notice, which will decide by majority vote at its next meeting. During the appeal period and pending the appeal, the member is suspended, provided that the person concerned has access to the next general meeting to present a defense and is entitled to speak there. The person concerned is also entitled to be assisted by counsel at that meeting.

5. In the event of an infringement as referred to in paragraph 1(b), the member concerned shall be subject to the provisions of the disciplinary law of the organizations, established by the general meeting of the organizations.

FUNDS.

1. The association's funds consist of:
a. contributions from members;
b. receipts from competitions;
c. other income.

2. a. Members are required to pay contributions semi-annually, which will be determined annually by the general meeting. Members may be divided into categories for this purpose, each paying a different contribution;
b. when membership is terminated during the half-yearly contribution period ends, no refund of the contribution will take place.

3. Honorary members are exempt from the obligation to pay contributions.

4. For the inactive members referred to in Article 5, paragraph 4, the board may set a different contribution. The contribution of an inactive member will be settled at the end of the inactive period.

END OF MEMBERSHIP.

ARTICLE 9.
1. Membership ends:
a. upon death of the member;
b. by notice of termination by the member;
c. by notice of termination by the board on behalf of the association;
d. by dismissal (expulsion), as determined in Article 7, paragraph 4.

2. Termination on behalf of the association can take place when a member has ceased to be a member to meet the membership requirements to the extent specified by this articles of association are established, or when he fulfills his obligations towards the association fails to comply, as well as when it cannot reasonably be expected of the association to continue the membership.

3. Termination of membership by the member or on behalf of the association can be done by observance of a notice period of four weeks and the provisions of Article 8 member 2.a and b.

4. A termination as referred to in Article 6 paragraph 3 must be made within a month after the decision in question has become known or has been communicated to the member.

5. A member who has resigned is deemed to remain a member until the end of the half-yearly membership period following the period in which resignation occurred, as long as he has not fulfilled his financial obligations to the association, or as long as any matter in which he is involved has not been settled, including the enforcement of any imposed penalty.
During this period, the data subject cannot exercise any rights, except for the right to appeal within the specified time limits.

DONORS.

ARTICLE 10.
1. The association has the option of admitting donors.

2. Donors are natural or legal persons who have been admitted as donors by the board and who undertake to the association to make an annual minimum contribution determined by the board.

3. Donors have no other rights or obligations than those assigned to them by or have been granted or imposed under the articles of association.

4. The rights and obligations of donors can be mutually assigned at any time.
be terminated by notice, provided that the annual contribution remains due in full for the current financial year.

MANAGEMENT.

ARTICLE 11.
1. a. The board consists of at least five adults, who are elected from among the members by the general meeting;
b. the Chairman is elected to office;
c. the maximum number of board members is determined by the general meeting.

2. a. Up to three times twenty-four hours before the start of the general meeting, candidates may be nominated for the position of board member by the board or by at least five members.
b. A nomination may be revoked by a resolution of the general meeting adopted by at least two-thirds of the valid votes cast.
c. If no nomination is made or if the general meeting decides in accordance with paragraph 2.b to revoke the binding nature of the nomination, the general meeting is free in its choice.

3.a. Each board member will retire two years after their election, according to a schedule to be drawn up by the board. Retiring board members are immediately eligible for re-election. Anyone elected to fill an interim vacancy will take the place of their predecessor on the schedule.
b. Directors must be of legal age and shall retire in any case at the annual general meeting held in the financial year in which they reach the age of seventy.

4. At its first board meeting after a board election, the board will allocate the remaining positions by mutual agreement and determine the duties of each board member. All members will be notified of this either in the club magazine or by written notice.

5. Each board member is obligated to the association to properly perform the duties assigned to them. If the matter falls within the remit of two or more board members, each of them is jointly and severally liable to the association, unless they prove that the shortcoming was not their fault and that they were not negligent in taking measures to avert the consequences.

6. The general meeting may suspend or dismiss a board member if it deems it necessary. A decision to do so requires a majority of at least two-thirds of the valid votes cast. A suspension that is not followed by a resolution to dismiss within three months ends upon expiry of that period.

7. Board membership also ends:
a. by termination of membership; and
b. by resigning as a board member.

MANAGEMENT TASK.

ARTICLE 12.
1. Subject to the restrictions set out in the articles of association, the board is responsible for managing the association.

2. If the number of board members falls below five, the board remains authorized. However, it is mandatory to convene a general meeting as soon as possible after the number of board members falls to three, to discuss filling the vacancies. In the event of a vacancy, the board can temporarily fill it.

3.The board is authorised to take responsibility for certain aspects to have its duties carried out by committees, the members of which are appointed and dismissed by the board.

BOARD MEETING.

ARTICLE 13.
1. Unless the board decides otherwise, the board will meet when the chairman or two other board members so request.

2. The board may also make decisions outside of a meeting, provided that no board member objects to this method of decision-making and all board members participate in this decision-making.

3. a. All decisions, including the decisions referred to in paragraph 2, shall be taken by a majority of the valid votes cast, provided that, with regard to decisions taken at the meeting, the majority of the board members in office are present.
b. Blank votes are considered as not having been cast.

4. Each proposal will be voted on separately and orally, unless the chairman or a board member wishes otherwise.

5.a. The chairman's decision that the board has made a decision is final. The same applies to the content of a decision taken, insofar as the vote was on a proposal not recorded in writing.
b. However, if the correctness of the decision referred to in (a) is contested immediately after its pronouncement, the decision to be taken will be recorded in writing, if necessary, and a new vote will be held if a board member so requests. This new vote will invalidate the legal consequences of the original vote.

6. Minutes of the proceedings of each meeting shall be kept by the secretary or a secretary appointed by the board, and shall be recorded by the chairman and the secretary.

REPRESENTATION AND AUTHORITY.

ARTICLE 14.
1. The association is represented in and out of court by:
either the chairman and the secretary;
either the chairman and the treasurer;
either the secretary and the treasurer.

2. The association shall be represented at the branch meeting of the organization (if affiliated), to the exclusion of other board members, by a board member designated for that purpose by the board, who is authorized to participate in the election of member delegates at this meeting, and who is also authorized to nominate the association as a member delegate, in which case he will represent the association in that position upon election.

3. The board is authorised, subject to prior approval of the general meeting, to enter into agreements to purchase, alienate or encumber registered property, to enter into agreements whereby the association acts as guarantor or co-debtor, vouches for a third party or undertakes to provide security for the debt of a third party.

4. Board members who have been granted representative authority under these Articles of Association shall not exercise this authority until a board resolution has been passed, in which the relevant legal act or acts are entered into. Violation of this provision cannot be held against either the association or the other party.

ACCOUNTABILITY AND RESPONSIBILITY.

ARTICLE 15.
1. The board is obliged to keep such records of the association's financial position that its rights and obligations can be known at all times.

2. Unless the general meeting extends its term, the board shall submit its annual report to a general meeting within six months of the end of the financial year and, submitting the balance sheet and the income and expenditure statement, render an account of its management during the past financial year. Failing this, after the deadline has expired, any member may legally demand this account from the board.

3.a. Unless the general meeting has otherwise provided for supervision of the board, the general meeting shall elect an audit committee consisting of two members and one alternate member, who may not be part of the board.
b. The members of the committee referred to in paragraph 3.a. are elected for a term of two years and retire according to a schedule to be drawn up. They may only be re-elected once.
c. The audit committee examines the accounts and statements of the board and reports its findings to the general meeting.

4. Those examining the board's accounts and statements may, at the association's expense, be assisted by the expert. The board is obligated to provide the committee with all the information it requests, to show it the cash upon request, and to allow it to inspect the association's books and records.

5. The mandate of the committee may be revoked at any time by the general meeting, but only by electing another committee.

6. Approval by the general meeting of the annual report and the accounts and accountability discharges the board of directors from all actions, insofar as these appear from the annual accounts.

7. The board is obliged to keep the documents referred to in paragraphs 1, 2 and 3 of this article for ten years.

GENERAL MEETING.

ARTICLE 16.
1. An annual general meeting (annual meeting) will be held annually, unless the general meeting extends it, no later than six months after the end of the financial year.

2. The agenda for this meeting includes:
a. Discussion of the minutes of the previous general meeting.
b. Annual report of the secretary.
c. Treatment and approval of the annual accounts.
d. Determination of contributions.
e. Adoption of the budget.
f. Provision of vacancies.
g. Any other business.

3. Furthermore, general meetings shall be held as often as the board deems desirable.

4.a. The board is obliged to convene a general meeting within a period of no more than four weeks upon the written request of at least such a number of members as are entitled to cast one-tenth of the votes;
b. If the request is not complied with within fourteen days, the applicants may themselves convene the meeting, taking into account the provisions of the following paragraph.

5.a. General meetings shall be convened by the board, with due observance of a notice period of at least fourteen days, not counting the day of the convocation and the day of the meeting itself.
b. The meeting shall be convened in the club magazine or by written notice sent to all members, simultaneously mentioning the agenda, or by advertisement in at least one widely read daily newspaper in the club's registered office. If the meeting is convened by advertisement, the agenda shall be made available for inspection by members in a suitable location and shall be noted in the advertisement.

ACCESS AND DECISION-MAKING OF THE GENERAL MEETING.

ARTICLE 17.
1.a. All members have access to the general meeting, provided they are not suspended as members at the time of the meeting.
b. The chair may also grant access to persons other than those referred to in paragraph 1.a.

2. Only the members referred to in paragraph 1(a) are entitled to vote and have one vote. Voting by proxy is not permitted.

3.a. Unless otherwise provided in these Articles of Association, decisions shall be taken by a majority of the valid votes cast.
b. A majority means more than half of the valid votes cast.
c. Votes or ballot papers cast shall be deemed invalid if, in the opinion of the chairperson:
1.to be blank;
2.are signed;
3.be illegible;
4.not clearly identifying a person;
5. contain the name of a person who has not been nominated;
6.contain more than one name for each eligible position;
7.contain more than a clear indication of the person intended.

4. All votes on business matters shall be taken orally, and on persons in writing, unless the chairperson determines or permits a different method of voting without objection from the meeting.

5.a. If no one receives a majority of valid votes cast in the first ballot of a vote on persons, a second ballot will be held. If no one receives a majority of valid votes cast in this ballot either, a second ballot will be held for the persons who received the highest number of votes in the second ballot.
b. If only one person receives the highest number of votes, a second vote will be held between them and the person who received the second-highest number of votes. If more than one person received the second-highest number of votes, an interim vote will be held between them to determine the candidate for the second vote.
c. In both the interim vote and the second vote(s), the person who receives the majority of valid votes cast is elected. If the votes are tied in these votes, the decision is made by drawing lots.

6. If the votes are tied on a proposal that does not concern the election of persons, the proposal shall be rejected.

7.a. A decision pronounced by the chairperson at the meeting that a decision has been taken is decisive. The same applies to the content of a decision taken, insofar as the vote was on a proposal not recorded in writing;
b. However, if the correctness of the judgment referred to under a. is contested immediately after its pronouncement, the decision to be taken will be recorded in writing, if necessary, and a new vote will be held if the majority of the meeting or, if the original vote was not by roll call or in writing, a member so requests. This new vote will invalidate the legal consequences of the original vote.

POWERS OF THE GENERAL MEETING.

ARTICLE 18.
The general meeting has all powers within the association that are not assigned to the board by law or by the articles of association.

MANAGEMENT AND MINUTES OF THE GENERAL MEETING.

ARTICLE 19.
1. The general meetings are chaired by the chairman of the board.

In the absence of the chairperson, another board member designated by the board will act as chairperson. If the chairperson is not appointed in this way, the general meeting will appoint the chairperson itself.

2. Minutes of the proceedings of each general meeting shall be taken by the secretary or a secretary appointed by the board. After approval by the chairman and the secretary, the minutes shall be published in the club magazine or brought to the attention of the members in some other way and shall be discussed at the next general meeting.

REGULATIONS.

ARTICLE 20.
1. The general meeting may establish and amend regulations in which, if necessary, the tasks and powers of the bodies are further regulated.

2. The regulations may not conflict with the law, even where it is not mandatory. contains no law, nor the articles of association.

LIABILITY.

ARTICLE 21.
Neither the association nor the board can be held liable for the consequences of the actions of members and participants, nor for incidents that occur on the grounds or in the premises used by the association.

AMENDMENT OF THE STATUTE.

ARTICLE 22.
1. The Articles of Association may only be amended by a resolution of the general meeting, which has been convened with the announcement that an amendment to the Articles of Association will be proposed at that meeting.

2. Those who issued the notice convening the general meeting to consider a proposal to amend the articles of association must, at least fourteen days before the meeting, make a copy of that proposal, containing the proposed amendment verbatim, available for inspection by members in a suitable location until after the day of the meeting. Furthermore, the proposed amendment will be published in the club magazine at least fourteen days before the meeting, and/or a copy will be made available to a member upon request.

3. A resolution to amend the articles of association requires at least two-thirds of the valid votes cast, at a meeting in which at least two-thirds of the members are present. If two-thirds of the members are not present, a second meeting will be convened and held within four weeks, at which a resolution may be passed on the proposal as discussed in the previous meeting, regardless of the number of members present, provided that a majority of at least two-thirds of the valid votes cast is obtained.

4.a. An amendment to the articles of association will not take effect until a notarial deed has been drawn up. This date will be announced in the club magazine.
b. Each board member is individually authorised to execute this deed.

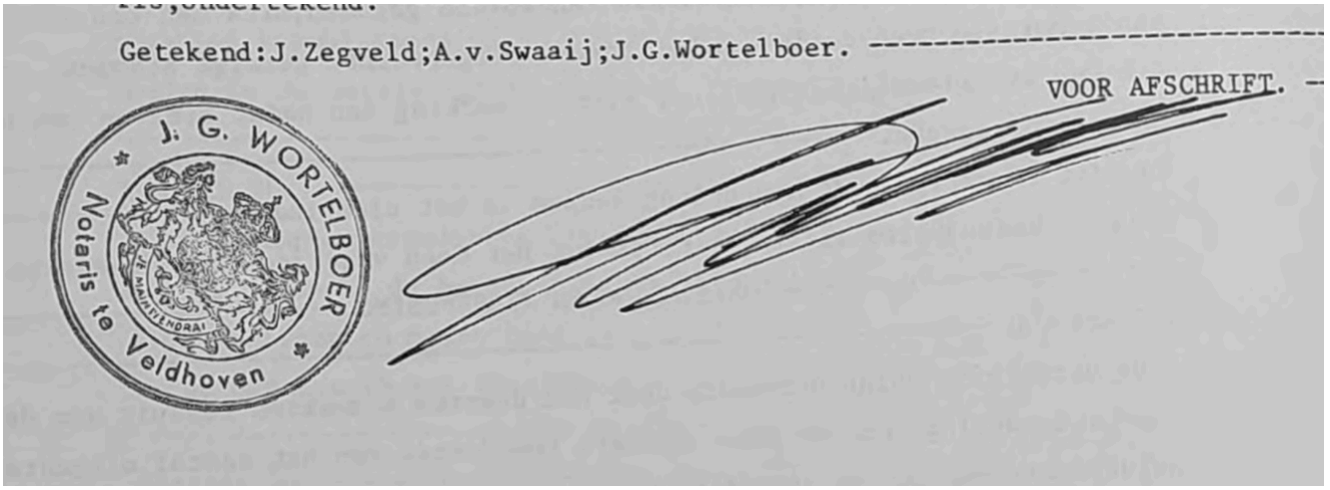
DISSOLUTION AND LIQUIDATION.

ARTICLE 23.
1. The association shall be dissolved by a resolution to that effect of the general meeting, passed by at least two-thirds of the valid votes cast in a meeting in which at least three-quarters of the members are present.

2. The provisions of paragraphs 2 and 3 of Article 22 shall apply accordingly.

3. If no liquidators have been appointed in the resolution to dissolve, the liquidation shall be carried out by the board.

4. Any surplus will not be forfeited to those who are members at the time of the decision to dissolve, but to an institution to be designated by the general meeting by a majority vote, which aims to promote sports activities among the Dutch people.

5. After dissolution, the association will continue to exist to the extent necessary for the liquidation of its assets. During the liquidation, the provisions of the articles of association and regulations will remain in force to the extent possible. In documents and announcements issued by the association, the words "IN LIQUIDATION" must be added to its name.


WHEREOF ACT, drawn up in minutes, was executed in Veldhoven, on the date stated above. After the contents of this deed were factually disclosed to the appearing parties, who are known to me, the civil-law notary, the appearing parties declared that they had taken note of the contents of this deed and did not wish for it to be read aloud in full. Subsequently, after a limited reading, this deed was signed by the appearing parties and me, the civil-law notary.
Signed: J. Zegveld; A.v. Swaaij; J.G. Wortelboer. FOR A COPY.